About WATS

The World Aviation Training Summit (WATS) is the world's largest gathering of aviation training professionals serving airlines, regulators, training providers and the training industry. For over 20 years WATS has attracted the leading subject matter experts and key decision makers within aviation training and safety.

WATS provides participants with a relaxed, yet professional environment conducive of developing new and existing relationships, key industry insights and an opportunity to analyse market forces.

Reasons for Participating

1200 international aviation training professionals from 50+ countries will be in attendance at WATS 2019.

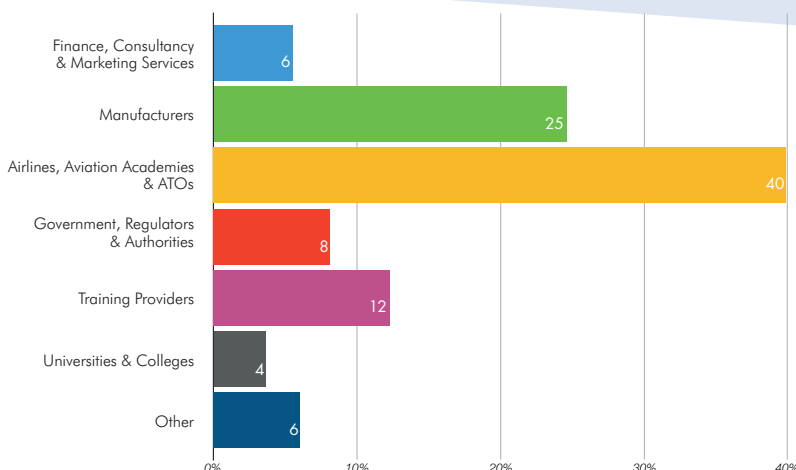

75%* of attendees have some role in the purchasing decision of new training equipment and services.

62%* of delegates have indicated that their organisations intends to buy equipment of services by 2020.

93%* of exhibitors have expressed their desire to return to WATS 2019.

10% of the WATS 2019 exhibitor space available.
